Community Awareness Associates

As a Community Awareness Associate in your area, you will volunteer on a freelance basis to:

- a. Post flyers ONLY INDOORS at businesses, religious facilities, community centers, neighborhood centers, etc at every opportunity management of these areas expressly give you permission to do so.;
- b. Distribute/handout flyers in public(If this is legal for you to do in your area).

The flyers are about the free HGRBS "SERVICE BOOKLET." This is a very special online booklet, freely accessible to private home heads all over America. There is also one specific to your area. It contains very special information, including hyperlinks to private and government offices which residents can use as accurate guides to being better informed about:

1. How best to select home improvement contractors;
2. How best to go about dispute resolutions between residents and contractors.

Your assistance is needed to help spread the word in your area about this very special free online booklet which will help the residents of your area make safer decisions about the people they hire. Wherever you are in the U.S., there is a free "SERVICE BOOKLET" customized to your geographic area. Everything is on your own schedule. No commitments required. You can do this whenever you like, for as long as you like. It is a prepared flyer. It will be sent to you in PDF.

THANK YOU FOR STEPPING FORWARD!
