Neighbors Helping Neighbors

Thank you for stepping forward to share the great news about the SERVICE BOOKLET with your neighbors. It is a very special free booklet (downloadable online) which offers tips and other useful information which can help neighbors decide better about home improvement contractors.

If you have had a neighbor who was cheated by dishonest people who called themselves “contractors,” this booklet could have helped avoid it.

Here are a few crucial points to that effect. The SERVICE BOOKLET is customized to each state. This means, in whatever state in the U.S. you live, it contains helpful hyperlinks for it alone. This advantage can enable neighbors to:

1. Research contractors on the state and/or local levels in your state to see if they are who they say they are and properly credentialed for the work we have.
2. Learn how best to approach filing complaints against dishonest contractors (in addition to Complaint Forms available online).
3. Learn other useful tips which are of a general nature which applies in all states which can help neighbors do all the right things to decide well.

*The Service Booklet has hyperlinks to government and other helpful offices.

How You Contribute To Social Good In Your Area

Our neighbors need something like this to refer to just to be safe. The SERVICE BOOKLET enables neighbors to be better informed and better prepared to make the safest and wisest choices. This special suggested assignment entails sharing with your neighbors good news about the “SERVICE BOOKLET.” It could be only with the people you know. Your time. Your schedule. Invariably, not only will they be better prepared but as much, this can add value to your relationship with neighbors. In addition, HGRBS offers you tips to make doing this more convenient for you. Your help is needed.
