RESIDENT-CONTRACTOR RELATIONS

UNIVERSAL LAW OF HOME PROJECT SUCCESS & FAILURE

The leading reason for most successful contract-related home projects is that residents 'do' thorough enough service validations on contractors; the leading reason for most unsuccessful contract-related home projects is that residents 'do not' do thorough enough service validations on contractors

“When a private home head says about resident-contractor relations ‘I know enough about this,’ this person actually knows ‘nothing.’ “ – HGRBS

Residents are always encouraged not to say those forbidden words. There is ‘always’ more to learn. HGRBS makes it convenient for self-empowered U.S. private home heads via its free online: “RESIDENT STRATEGIC STUDIES!” project. Free downloadable strategic tips.

HGRBS is a 501 (c) (3) nonprofit of independent volunteers. Special emphasis is on sharing free information with U.S. private heads to enable us to make safer and wiser contractor decisions.
